Called to love Jesus

GOSPEL PEARLS

“Very truly I tell you Pharisees, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.” Jesus used this figure of speech, but the Pharisees did not understand what he was telling them. Therefore Jesus said again, "Very truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who have come before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep have not listened to them. I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. (John 10: 1-10)

As the sheep with their shepherd, so the faithful souls follow Jesus. They do so because they have experienced His supreme love, the love that led Him to sacrifice His life for them. Just as children trust their parents because they feel their love, so too are we called to love God as our Father through the Son. Let us strive to trust Jesus ever more by putting ignoring the false prophets and media starlets of our time.
