

GOSPEL PEARLS

Presumption of being without merit

GOSPEL PEARLS

11_10_2020

Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come. "Then he sent some more servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.' "But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find.' So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. He asked, 'How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?' The man was speechless. "Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' "For many are invited, but few are chosen." (Matthew 22:1-14)

Jesus warns against the prideful presumption of thinking we are saved without deserving so. This is one of the six sins against the Holy Spirit. We always need to be dressed in our Sunday best, that is, being dressed in God's grace, in order to save our souls. Every disciple of Christ must ask for the purifying grace and, with his own will, adhere to God's Will. If it has been a long time since you have last spoken with your spiritual director, make an appointment today. If you don't have a spiritual director, pray to God to help you find one.