

GOSPEL PEARLS

Why Jesus is accused

GOSPEL PEARLS

*The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said of Jesus,
"He is possessed by Beelzebul. By the prince of demons he drives out demons."
Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables,
"How can Satan drive out Satan?
If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
And if a house is divided against itself,
that house will not be able to stand.
And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided,
he cannot stand;
that is the end of him.
But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man.
Then he can plunder his house.
Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them.
But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness,
but is guilty of an everlasting sin."
For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." (Mk 3:22-30)*

Faced with the evidence of Jesus's miracles, his enemies find no alternative than to attribute these powers to demonic forces. Those who falsely accuse Jesus do so not because of what He does, but because they do not accept what He announces. This sin which is against the Holy Spirit, cannot be forgiven and is the refusal to convert right until the moment of death, by placing our will above the divine, thus not leaving God the possibility of surprising and saving us: let's not commit this sin.
